

Appleseed Cast "Ice Heavy Branches"

It's all in the air, it covers everything
Now it's coming down, now it's on the brink

It turns the trees to diamond things
But it weighs too much, breaks everything

We could both be naked now and innocent
We could both be naked now and innocent

It breaks everything
It breaks everything

Everything breaks under all it's weight
And it's covered us, we could strip it off

We could both be naked now and innocent
We could both be naked now and innocent

It breaks everything
It breaks everything
