Secrets of, curtains love
Blinds, a hideaway
Long hand falls, the moment slows down
And nothing moves

Count the seconds passage
Lies concealed your hands
Wear this moment's wretched, finery

This moment's words
This moment's words fade away
The silence says, the silence says more

Secrets fall, you shout out lies
By just standing there
A face of smile, I could not see you
Only my reflection

Count the seconds passage
Lies concealed your hands
Wear this moment's wretched, finery

This moment's words
This moment's words fade away
The silence says, the silence says more

This moment's words
This moment's words [Incomprehensible] 2.47
The silence says more
