Where does the time go, when the days go by so fast
I'm losing sunny hours and I'm losing them fast You've got to, keep what you got and don't fight for the top cause once you get there you know what you've lost

Drinking 40s in the park
Lighting fireworks, long after dark
Smoking sess, trying to reach Jah
Some of our best times we had breaking the law

Responsibility is said to come first but tranquility is second to whats found in a purse You've got to, sit back relax, and just lose some stress wouldn't it be so nice, just to regress to

Drinking 40s in the park
Lighting fireworks, long after dark
Smoking sess, trying to reach Jah
Some of our best times we had breaking the law

So sit back, and take a loud off your life Listen to reggae make you feel alright Chill with your crew, and party all night because work is not your life

They push you down, pull yourself from the earth and come out swinging, you know your worth You've got to, keep what you got
and don't fight for the top cuz once you get there
you know what you've lost

Lighting fireworks, long after dark
Smoking sess, trying to reach Jah
Some of our best times we had breaking the law
Most of our best times we had breaking the law Alcohol tastes better when you're breaking the law
