My love, you flee and I don't know where or why you passed like an hourglass way too fast I rewind you in my mind so we can always last Breathe on, breathe on for those sweet times have gone You're going somewhere good on your paper plane and like an avalanche I just keep rolling on

But you know that I'd do anything
just to see you
You know that I'd do anything
just to see you
Again

Good night from my New York, you're now my sweet mystery and I've got this fire going, you and I both know I'm tossing like a broken boat on troubled seas
can't you come on home and rescue me

But you know that I'd do anything
just to see you
You know that I'd do anything
just to see you
Again

And now that I have got you under my skin it's unclear from here where you end and I begin Yah now that I have got your under my skin it's unclear from here where you end I begin

But you know that I'd do anything
just to see you
You know that I'd do anything
just to see you

So here's to hoping here's to hoping
here's to hoping

here's to hoping

You know that I'd do anything
You know that I'd do anything
Just to see you
Again
