Written by Diane Warren

I've got something I've been keeping inside

And I wanna share my secret

Want to share it tonight

And the moon outside is saying that the moment is right, right now

I've got a message coming straight from the heart

And I got so much I wanna say

Hardly know where to start

Gonna wait 'til we're together all alone in the dark, oh

I'm gonna hold you

And when the time is right

I'm gonna show you just what's been on my mind

Waited for so long, it's so strong

I just can't hold back

You know that

CHORUS:

This could take all night

From sundown up to sunlight

And we won't stop until the daylight

'Cause this could take all night

Yeah this could take all night

There's no hurry we can take it slow

I'll take the time to show you everything you need to knowYou'll see everything much better with the lights down low

Oh I'm gonna hold you

And when the time is right

I'm gonna show you just what's been on my mind

Waited for so long, it's so strong

I just can't hold back

You know that

CHORUS

Waited for so long, it's so strong

I just can't hold back

You know that

We got the whole night baby

To hold on tight

Let's take a long ride

We got the time
