When I turn I hear the passing of an empty train
Does it know
Does it know there's no one waiting
When I turn I hear the passing of an empty train
Does it know
Does it know there's no one waiting

There's a man nearly over in the bed he built
Does he know
Does he know there's nothing waiting
There's a woman pacing back and forth with a telephone
Does she know
Does she know there's no one waiting

And up north they're breaking open all the virgin ground
Do they know
Do they know there's nothing waiting
Across the world they're digging through the rubble calling out
Do they know
Do they know there's no one waiting

I don't fear -- oh I gave all that up long ago
For I know
For I know there's nothing waiting
A broken heart when it understands will heal anew
When it knows
When it knows there's no one waiting
