As yet unnamed

{Intro}

{verse 1}

A pirate on the blue sea

Just my crew and my monkey

Need a drink and a girl real bad

Wanna see some fuckin land

Let me out this wooden junkey

Shoot the crew hang the monkey

It sucks out here, without you around

Swim from wherever you are now

{chorus}

Cause no matter where i am

No matter what i do

I always need you close

To help and get me through

See you for a second

For just half a breath

Then i'd be content to live

Yeah content until my death

{verse 2}

A pilot in fast jet
Just my guns and headset
Need a drink need a girl real bad
Need to get this plane on land
Let me out this metal cast
Let the gun barrels blast
Its sucks up here without you around
Fly from wherever you are now
{chorus}
{verse 3}
Standin next to you
Guessin its my best bet
No pirates or pilots
No monkeys or headsets
Time counts round
But we dont care
Cause time only matters
If you're not there
