Lisa is alone

In her parents big house.

It's weekend and they want her not to go out.

The last report

they heard in the news on TV

maybe the next she could be!?

Lisa wants me!

I can tell you what I feel...

Lisa wants me!

Doesn't matter how she feels...

Lisa wants me!

It's not ever the will

That counts on this globe.

Some things will be steered

By others...

Lying on her back

With her eyes opened wide.

Two arms on her shoulders

A senceless fight!!!

Lisa wants me!

I can tell you what I feel...

Lisa wants me!

Oh - my god believe in me!!

Lisa wants me!

Go!!

Let me go...!

Lisa was so brave

at last she survived.

But-

Noone can ever see

What's dying inside...!!
