If I see you hiding in the night by a peppercorn tree the tree it moves ,lets me see what I wanna see a poison gazeÂ´f your mind is all thatÂ´'s worrying me

The pictures that I see are seen by no one else but me to cause the night to be in sight ,a little point of me

I imagine nearly anything I want to see

Black veils of melancholy falling on me black veils keep shadowing my mind black veils that make my mind seem small

black veils that make my mind seem small

I see you with my eyes closed getting closer and closer to me

I open my eye up and youÂ´re not there ,itÂ´'s all in my mind

Black veils of melancholy falling on me

black veils that make my mind seem small

black veils that make my mind seem small .....
