In the moonlight I see my memories
in a new light, they seem so real to me
I remember, you know I remember

And the starlight tripping in the sky come on, we can still go there tonight
I remember, you know I remember

We haven't changed
we just feel a little strange
we haven't changed
we're just a little bit deranged

In the moonlight I think about the past and in hindsight, I knew it wouldn't last
I remember, you know I remember

And the starlight skipping on the bay come on, we can still go there today
I remember, you know I remember
We haven't changed
we just feel a little strange
we haven't changed
we're just a little bit deranged

In the moonlight I see my memories
I realize I need you here with me
I remember, you know I remember

We haven't changed
we just feel a little strange
we haven't changed
we're just a little bit deranged
