I'm comin', comin' down
Took so long for me to come around
They tell you, it smashes brain
Drain you of all the blood you've left in your veins

Spare me a brew and a double bed
Give me time to clear my head tonight
With these stones you cast so fast
It makes me think, we will never last, yeah

I hear it, hear that sound
Hear that now aloud comin' down
I'm not eager to be mean
I'm eager to be anyone I like to be

If you spare me a brew and a double bed
Give me time to clear my head tonight
With these stones you cast so fast
It makes me think, we will never last, yeah

Spare me a brew and a double bed
Give me time to clear my head tonight
With these stones you cast so fast
It makes me think, we will never last

Comin' down, I'm comin' down
Comin' down, I'm comin' down
Comin' down, I'm comin' down
I'm comin' down, I'm comin' down

I'm comin' down, I'm comin' down
I'm comin' down, I'm comin' down
Spare me a brew and a double bed
And give me time to clear my head tonight
