Hey, baby, you are great today/ I wanna touch you and see myself reflex in your blue eyes/ You know, your hair lights all this grey room/ You make me feel outside, outside there is a northern sky// Faded, please keep on crying/ you're like the rain when there's the sun, too/ Fade, please keep on listening/ and never say that you are ugly, no/ You are the only thing that I like/when I see your eyes I feel like flying/ I will always give you respect/ and I'll stay with you// You represent the Aryan race/ with your kind white face/ you're made to walk through Stockholm's streets/ and get the power that the trolls give/ No, you don't need lens or colour on your blond hair/ You are faded, everybody wants to be like you// You can paint my days, You can paint my life
