

Viking "Under The Train"

Visit "Under The Train" on MotoLyrics.com

Chained on the rail
I look back upon my days
Of dances and energy
Until I found something stronger than me
That keeps me blocked with
My ear on the ground
Waiting for a sound
While I try to cut the chains

And runs and runs and runs the train
And you can't even feel the pain
And runs and runs so fast the train
You have no time to feel the pain

Chained on the rail
I don't resign, I'll go away
Life was not unfair
I searched for the things I wished to have
And maybe I didn't get
Everything I had expected
Fighting sometimes I lost
And I don't want to be defeated now

And runs...
Blood!
