See how the sun
Is running out of the sky
Turn one more page now
Gone by

Another day, another night
Then another day
Melting one into one
Til the world is done

To be blind is the state
Of a mind in confusion
But I'm facing reality
When I face the inside of me

I may die when the sun
Rises high in the heavens
Make me ready for destiny
And the rest of eternity

Let me be yours to let me
Show you all that I am
In living to give you
All a human can

Time wears a ring
Around the fingers
That hold my hand
Holding on to a love
Only you understand

To be blind is the state
Of a mind in confusion
But I'm facing reality
When I face the inside of me

I may die when the sun
Rises high in the heavens
Make me ready for destiny
And to love through eternity

To be blind is the state

Of a mind in confusion
But I'm facing reality
When I face the inside of me

And if I die when the sun
Rises high in the heavens
I'll accept that as destiny
But I'll love through eternity
