HOOK x 2:

There's a little bit in you
There's a little bit in me
There's so many branches on the humanitree

(LMNO)

First name, double, last name, standard
Fits appropriately, due to the pattern
Of how you'd want to be treated
Can't open the door when already seated Never talks first, waits to be greeted
Won't compete if there's chance to be defeated
They'll complement to get complemented
From the tone of their voice you can tell if they meant it
Expect so much, accept so little Heated discussions that never meet in the middle
One sided coin toss, what's the result
Yeah, you made the mistake but it wasn't your fault
Live for your word, die for your lie,
Give false respect to big up your pride
Says one thing then action contradicts
Sends negative waves but can't stand conflict
A mind molester isn't a registered crook
All you gotta do is take a deeper look

HOOK x 2:

(Dannu)

First name, hard, last name, headed
Don't want to listen, actions are regretted
Saw the accident had no time to change
Saw no one else to blame sweating tears in the rain
Always getting mad when given advice
For every mistake you made the same mistake twice
Wonder what you did to what you didn't do
Who didn't go to school, late bloomer now you knew
And I know not, what attracts you to be hard cocked
Self jocked, stuck in a living paradox
Your parallel thoughts always doublecross mine
Hope someday you find your mind,
Meantime, arrest self for a non-listening crime

Numbskulls realize all in due time, time, time

HOOK x 2:

(Zen)

First name, hot, last name, temper

Friction over the edge, now there's no turning back

Enter the red zone like Fred stone

Flint sparks the price to claim everyone else but self,

Set tone to elevate and yell,

Scream, then harsh words to demean

Those cared enough and got fed enough and found it time to come clean

The scene takes a turn for the worst when blood vessels burst

Can't stand the pangs of criticism, the truth hurts

Defense mechanism surface, nothing is safe

Shattered glass, holes in plastic prove the need to escape

Hair standing on end, as fury intensifies

As the adrenalin possession is brooding the dark side

On the verge of blacking out, the minute is now colossal

Dosal fluids transform to raging waters full throttle
