Trevor Rabin)

It looks so easy

To be walking close behind

And I found it easy

To be near you all the time

I'm looking at you now

As if you knew the way

But I can't reach you, you're far away

It doesn't seem so easy

Like the river that flows upstream

Promises! Don't give me promises

Don't give me promises when all you do is lie

No promises when all I do is cry

Look for the questions

>From the minds of those who care

You'll find them waiting

And you'll learn that we can share

Losing the love

Been looking out for freedom

Been losing our love along the way
