"I Love You"

I wonder what life would be, without rainy days (days) Without rage and pain (pain) fake debates and paper chase And would you stay, if my soul chosed to fade away
The choosen state, you focus and pray (pray)
I'm twentytwo now, and I guess I'm gettin' older I'm raisin' one hand (one hand) for fallen soldiers
All I know is, it's hard to say I'm sorry, but I'm far away, So I'm gonna say "I'm sorry dad"
For the times I've been bad For the times I've been frontin' you instead of fallin' back But you're leavin' every week, and packin' down your suits
But what comes around, goes around, so I love you too

chours x1

All of my life - You've been the light that guides me
When i feel blind - You are the path inside me
You gave me life - For all the times we've spend together
From now untill forever

What if I dissappear, would you still remember me?
And would you lay flowers on my spot or a hennesy?
Cuz if I die,
it's ment to be,
but I'm alive dawg
So I'm not handin' out my legacy my mom's a queen, she's every sons dream, but she lost a piece, i promise you, i won't leave
All I know is, it's hard to say I'm sorry, but the tension grows so im gonna say "I'm sorry mom"
For the times I've been gone
For the times I've been yellin' at you, when i was wrong the tention's gone and we've come so far what comes around, goes around, so i love you ma/

chours x3

All of my life - You've been the light that guides me
When i feel blind - You are the path inside me
You gave me life - For all the times we've spend
together
From now untill forever
