I looked for love in Memphis

I looked for love in ome

Now that I finally got you

I just wanna take you home

I'm trying my best not to rush you

Because rushing ain't no fun

But are you breaking the law

Or looking out for miracles

I think it's time you tell me where we stand

You've been taking my love

You've been breaking the law

You better start making my love

Becuase I'm in need of a miracle

Bedded a girl in Texas

And went all the way in Spokane

But I love you so much

I'm content to hold your hand

See I ain't in no hurry

I can't wait to be your man

But are you breaking the law or looking out for miracles

I think it's time you tell me where we stand

You've been taking my love

We've been breaking the law

You'd better start making my love

Because I'm in need of a miracle

(repeat chorus)

I took a train to Detroit

Then I rode a train to Memphis

I've been all around this bad bad world

Just trying to find some tenderness

Taking my Love

We've been breaking the law

You'd better start making my love

Because I'm in need of a miracle

See I took a train to New York

And then I rolled into Chigago

Yeah, I've been all around this mean mean world

Only trying to find a heart of gold
