(Nits)

Come back come back
To the house on the hill
Where the tree is falling
And I think I will
Come back come back
To the house anymore
Where the water is burning
And they knock on your door
When it's all or nothing
All or nothing for me
When it's all or nothing
It's all for me

She said
'The man in the street
Will break your heart
They try to mend it
But it falls apart'
Come back come back
To the house on the hill
Where the tree is falling
And I think I will
