(Hofstede)
They hide in the curtain
They smell I'm not certain
In the night
Domestic animals bite
They scratch they've got nails
In the dark
Domestic animals bark
His bite is better than his bark
When you meet him in the dark
His bite is better than his bark
He's a comfort for the ladies
He's a danger for the babies
In the dark

Domestic animals bark
They hide in the curtain
They smell I'm not certain
In the night
Domestic animals bite
His bite is better than his bark
When you meet him in the dark
His bite is better than his bark
His bite is better
His bite is better
His bite is better than his bark
