Somebody said
You better not forget
To put heart
In front of head
I know it's true
I've been thinking of you
And all the words
That you have said
Pillow talk to me
Pillow talk to me
Pillow you talk to me
Pillow you talk to me
Like a puff of smoke

You disappeared
When I awoke
Today
The heart breaks slow
The headaches follow
The shape of you will fade away
Pillow talk to me
Pillow talk to me
Pillow talk to me
Pillow you talk to me
