It's like jail, it's like flight
It's a dream that breaks in the middle of the night
It's like chains, it's like an open door
Love is everything and nothing I've been looking for

It's coming home, it's lost at sea
It's a hopeless addiction to sweet misery
It's the poison, it's the candy store
Well, love is everything and nothing I've been looking for

I can't hide from the truth, this love I feel for you
Oh, it's the one thing that I can't ignore
I know I can't explain the pleasure or the pain
Your love is everything and nothing I've been looking for

It's like freedom, it's like a trap
It's a short trip to Heaven and a long ride back
Well, dance on the ceiling and crawl on the floor
And love is everything and nothing I've been looking for

I can't hide from the truth, this love I feel for you
Oh, it's the one thing that I can't ignore
I know I can't explain the pleasure or the pain
Your love is everything and nothing I've been looking for

I can't hide from the truth, this love I feel for you
Oh, it's the one thing that I can't ignore
I know I can't explain the pleasure or the pain
Your love is everything and nothing I've been looking for

Well, love is everything and nothing I've been looking for
