If love should come again from you
You could never count the ways of things I'd say an' do
And I would be more of a man than I've ever been
If I ever have the chance to be lovin' you again.

I have been a fool, that's what I am
I don't wanna lose you
What can I do, my life ain't worth livin'
If my love ain't worth givin' to you.

An' all I wanna say is you're all I need
Hands like the sunshine touch me at the right time
you're the air I breathe
An' I would be more of a man than I've ever been
If I ever have the chance to be lovin' you again.

I've been a fool that's what I am
I don't wanna lose you
What can I do my life ain't worth livin'
If my love ain't worth givin' to you.

Well, I've been a fool that's what I am
I don't wanna lose you
What can I do my life ain't worth livin'
If my love ain't worth givin' to you.

I've been a fool, that's what I am
I don't wanna lose you
What can I do my life ain't worth livin'
If my love ain't worth givin' to you...
