You sure have a pretty smile
It sure has been a while
Since I've felt your touch

You've got the sweetest way
I think about you every day
And I miss you so much

Oh, my pretty little Adriana
Are you lonesome tonight?
Oh, my pretty little Adriana
I'll find you when it all feels right

You're so soft and innocent
The sweetest night I ever spent
Was being held in your embrace

You're such a gentle soul
It's killing me to know
When will I see your face

Oh, my pretty little Adriana
Are you lonesome tonight?
Oh, my pretty little Adriana
I'll find you when it all feels right

Oh, my pretty little Adriana
Are you lonesome tonight?
Oh, my pretty little Adriana
I'll find you when it all feels right

Oh, my pretty little Adriana
Are you lonesome tonight?
Oh, my pretty little Adriana
I'll find you when it all feels right
