I wipe a tear away as I give up this day
Wonderin' if I'll ever find someone
And when I close my eyes and dream
These are the words I'm whispering, someday, love will come

I won't have a doubt, my head up in the cloud
And certain as the mornin' sun
I will always believe there's somebody just for me
Someday love will come

Someday, after all these nights of waitin'
And someday, I'll find the chance worth takin'
And saving me from waking up alone
My heart will find a home someday

And she'll be so beautiful
The sweetest miracle
Someday, love will come

Someday, after all these nights of waitin'
And someday, I'll find the chance worth takin'
And saving me from waking up alone
My heart will find a home someday

And when I close my eyes and dream
These are the words I'm whispering
Someday love will come
Someday love will come
