the street looks different tonight something has changed had this picture in mind but its just not the same had this great expectaion bout a heart thats free thought that what i wanted would be waitin for me baby somethings missin tonight missin tonight
something aint feelin right baby somethings wrong
and im so confused
baby somethings missing tonight something i cant find in the night finally realized what im missing is you in this crowd of old friends why do i feel alone thought id fall back instead this is whre i belong i thought that freedom was callin from the dark but now i see i was only free when you were in my heart
baby somethings missings tongiht
something i cant find in the night
though that freedom was callin from the dark
now i see i was only free
when you were in my heart baby somethings missin toght baby something aint feelin right baby soethings wrong and im so confused baby somethings missin inside something i cant find in the night i finally realized what im missing is you

baby something missin in side
baby something missin inside
baby something missin tonight
