Rain, rain come on down
You're so welcome at my door
Come on down and ease the pain
Never hurt this bad before

Tears keep falling from my eyes
And all I do is walk the floor
Ain't too hard to realize
There's not much love here anymore

Rain, rain come blowin' in
Wash these tears away again
Leavin's cut me to the core
There's not much love here anymore

Rain, rain come blowin' in
Wash these tears away again
Leavin's cut me to the core
There's not much love here anymore

Rain, rain come blowin' in
Wash these tears away my friend
Leavin's cut me to the core
There's not much love here anymore
