"Look Around"

I was lying on my old couch
Feeling kind of lazy
Bored with the world
And listening to my radio
When this song came along
And it said "Look Around".

Have you seen the old man?
Who lives down the road
In the old old house
At the corner of the street
Have you spoken to him lately

He lives alone "Look Around"! He lives alone

Have you asked him how he feels
If he needs a little help
Does he need a lift or something else
So here is what to do "Look Around".

If you are bored help somebody
There's much to do in this world
How could you be so bored
Something is missing from inside you

If you are bored help somebody
Someone needs a hand
How could you be so bored
Something is missing from inside you
Look around "Look Around"! just look around "Look Around"!

Have you seen the old woman
Who lives just down the road
She walks slowly up the hill
Feeds the birds down the park
Have you spoken to her lately
She lives alone "Look Around"! She lives alone

Have you asked her how she feels
If she needs a little help
Does she need a lift or something else
So here is what to do "Look Around".

If you are bored help somebody
There's much to do in this world
How could you be so bored
Something is missing from inside you

If you are bored help somebody
Someone needs a hand
How could you be so bored
Something is missing from inside you

Look around! just look around!
