I can see them everyday
There on my wall now
And when the girls come out to play
I'm never alone now
Yeah I can help myself
To any month on any day now
And I convinced myself
That they'd pick me
If I met them someday

Since I met you
The months are changing
These girls wont do

Better than Miss January
Cuter than Miss February
Girl you make me hotter than July
Whooaah,
August right through to November
Your more cool than Miss December
Your my world
Now your my calender girl

I first saw you back in May
You knew my sister
And I would bug you everday
By taking your picture
I convinced myself that your not feeling the same way
But on a Friday night in June you said
Throw the calender girls away

Since I met you
The months are changing
These girls wont do

Better than Miss January
Cuter than Miss February
Girl you make me hotter than July
Whooaah,
August right through to November
Your more cool than Miss December

Your my world
Now your my calender girl

Better than Miss January
Cuter than Miss February
Girl you make me hotter than July
Whooaah,
August right through to November
Your more cool than Miss December
Your my world
Now your my calender
Your my calender
Your my world
