I'm sick and tired of this situation,
I'm sick and tired of this mess I'm making,
Sometimes I can't stand myself!
And it gets too hard to ask for help,

You ask me why when you already know!
You tell me yes when you know the answers no!

But if you want it, you could be right this time,
And if you want it, maybe I'll change my mind,
But if you want it, you've gotta understand,
And if you want it, you've got to make a stand!

I say it again and to this I swear,
I live in fear that there's nothing there,
We've been here before, I don't understand...

You ask me why when you already know!
You tell me yes when you know the answers no!

But if you want it, you could be right this time,
And if you want it, maybe I'll change my mind,
But if you want it, you've gotta understand,
And if you want it, you've got to make a stand!
