Where were they
I do not know
Where are we now
And does it show
We grow, big, small
Sometimes we stay the same
Love is all I had to give
I was not born alone
Those little things
Those precious things you gave me

Well, well, the signs
Oh, signs
Yeah, signs
Boy, don't you throw your heart away
Read the signs
Oh, signs
Yeah, signs
Before you're about to fade away

Dizzy heart and dizzy eyes
If she said jump
You said "how high?"
Now you miss the water
Cause the well has run dry
Memories of the summer breeze
Tentacles of the shadows trees
Now boy, you brought me to my knees

There were no signs
Oh, signs
Yeah, signs
Boy, don't you throw your heart away
Read the signs
Oh, signs
Yeah, signs
Before she's about to fade away
There were no signs
Oh, signs
Yeah, signs
Girl, don't you give your game away

Read the signs
Oh, signs
Yeah, signs
And then what will they do?
Signs
Oh, signs
Yeah, signs
Girl, don't you give your game away
Signs
Before you're about to fade away

You stole my heart
Now we have to go back to the start
Now we are apart
What, what, what will they do?
You stole my heart
Now we have to go back to that part
I don't remember that part
You say I dramatize
With all those lows and highs
Now we are apart
I don't remember this part
Now we breath into the light you don't know
