"A Girl I Knew"

Allie was a girl I knew
Took my heart and tore it in two
There are things I couldn't say
There are times I feel ashamed

Marriage was a thing we had
Hurt so much that it made me mad
Living off of coke and brew
So much time to sit and lose

You say you want a reason
I've been known to you
The weather of the season
They tell you where to move

That day she walked out the door
Cried so much on the kitchen floor
Wishing I could have her back
Feeling like a heart attack

You say you want a reason
I've been known to you
The weather of the season
They tell you where to move

A year later on the telephone
Record deal and a movie role
Telling me it's all okay
Wants to meet and speak again, oh yeah
