Once there was a young man
No one could understand
Wasting time every day
He got nothin' to say

All he ever playin' is that rock and roll music
Rock and roll music, yeah
All he ever wanted was a reason to do it
Reason to do it, yeah

Well, he know every line
(He's a rocker)
For the rhythm and rhyme
(He's a rocker)

Move his head to the beat
(He's a rocker)
As he walk down the street
(He's a rocker)

All he ever playin' is that rock and roll music
Rock and roll music, yeah
All he ever wanted was a reason to do it
Reason to do it, yeah

C'mon, let's trip again
Just like how we used to
I wanna trip again
We ain't got nothin' to lose

He's a rocker
He's a rocker
He's a rocker
He's a rocker

All he ever playin' is that rock and roll music
Rock and roll music, yeah
All he ever wanted was a reason to do it
Reason to do it, yeah
