Sun child
You're a sun child
Awoken by the spirit of the day
Well I've grown wild
Speaking so mild
Forgot about the engine in the rain

Don't let it bring you down
For us that ain't the way
We'll keep our lives reserved
For those who have to pray
But I can't pray

Sun child
You're a sun child
Awoken by the spirit of the day
Well I've grow wild
Speaking so mild
Forgot about the engine in the rain

Don't let it bring you down
For us that ain't the way
We'll keep our lives reserved
For those who have to pray
But I can't pray
