Well, look at me now
I'm the Big Man in town
Yes, the Big Man in town
And shall I wear my crown
When they see me in town
All the heads they turn round
Because â€¦

This world is a very small town
It's a very small town
Such a very, very small town
This boy is a very big boy,
He's a very big boy,
Such a very, very big boy

This town is so exciting
To the gentleman who is and is everything
Just name the price, it's my thing
Oh, Ohhh , Oh, Oh ah oh ah oh

Well, look at them now
They're all ants to me now
Got my looking glass out
And those scoffs turned out so shallow
Oh they're all ants to me now
I'm the Big Man in town, yeah â€¦

And Jew, you're a very nice boy
Such a very nice boy,
Such a very, very nice boy
Your price isn't just fame or toys
You're a very nice boy
Such a very, very nice boy

This town is so exciting
To the gentleman who is,
And is everything
Just name the price, it's my thing
The gentleman who is,
And is everything
Walk 'round this town they're fighting

To catch a glorious sighting
Of the gentleman who is,
And is everything
Gentleman who is
And is everything

Break:

So, I was a very big boy
But the big bullies came out to play
Sticks and stones knocked my name off the throne
As Hard Copy revealed I was gay
My empire is starting to fade

This town is so disgusting
The man who was,
But isn't worth anything
Can't hock my jewels
I'm busted
I have become a joke thing

The man who was,
But isn't worth anything (4x)
