Stop looking, listen my friends
I can't lie, can't pretend
Love lightning, flashes what I call my truth

Force me to stay, but I'll go
Leave you cold, alone, weak
Don't eat my tung and then force me to speak

(Please be quiet for a while)
If you wanna know, wanna understand
Better listen now, 'cause I'm about to tell
If you wanna know, wanna understand
Better listen now, 'cause I'm about to tell

Let's hear my symphony play
I sing straight to your ear
You don't have to hold me to feel that I'm here

Talking in riddles, no use
I'm your fool, you are who?
Don't eat my tung and then force me to speak

(Please be quiet for a while)
If you wanna know, wanna understand
Better listen now, 'cause I'm about to tell
If you wanna know, wanna understand
Better listen now, 'cause I'm about to tell

(Please be quiet for a while)
If you wanna know, wanna understand
Better listen now, 'cause I'm about to tell
If you wanna know, wanna understand
Better listen now, 'cause I'm about to tell
