Like superman she flew so high on that night
One fall, one fatal kiss of goodbye
Her knees, had felt a fever
It's over, forever

She wished there's heaven
Where all could start again
Her mind kept striving
For the sky's miraculous signs,
Where the darkness is an unworthy lie
She won't hide her life

Your star is shining
Once that was dying
It's light reveals who she is!

The stars can make us move
Can make us loose the darkness
Flaming heartless
This cry for so much more
Can be the core of knowing
Who she is on this ground

She reaches higher and wider with hope
Eyes glimmering when she gets to know it all
The possibilities, endless in love
Her star shines out aloud

Like the sun of braveness
That yesterday cannot tame
Like a power as galactic
As the stars revealing me

So bright it's shining
It might reveal the one who you are

The stars can make us move
Can make us loose the darkness
Flaming heartless
This cry for so much more
Can be the core of knowing

Who you are on this ground

You have a star on this ground

Your star can make me loose
Can make me move the darkness
Flaming heartless!

Your stars can make us move
Can make us loose the darkness
Flaming heartless
This cry for so much more
Can be the core of knowing
Who we are on this ground
