I'm kinda suprised to know... I'm still on your mind
After all this time girl
Rather amazed to hear you want another chance
To get some real romance

Ooh did you think I'd drop my toys and run
Ooh just because you called me for some fun

I'm kinda surprised to hear that you had the gall to even try and call me
You left suddenly one night, guess I fell asleep
Watchin some old movie

Ooh now you show up offering your heart
Ooh your man left you now you're torn apart Ooh see you're thirstin for what you once had Well I'm the one for you I am the one for you, you know it's true

Well I ain't givin up my love not now Ooh ooh I ain't givin up my love no how Ooh ooh I ain't givin up my love not now Ooh ooh ain't givin up my love, givin up my love not my pride

Kinda surprised to see that I'm still in your book
And you still got my number
Is this a second look?
Are you reaching out of your past
The best things you remember

Ooh there was a time you had me lock and key Ooh but you traded for some fantasy
Ooh bout a man who would leave his wife for you Well that's a joke what a joke, now what am I supposed to do?
