What compliment will make you smile today?
When you're coming my way,
you smile before I can say,
how good you look today.

Oh smile, when I smile because you're around,
and when I pray the bell doesn't make a sound
For the moments we have,
we'll never have memories of bad.
And I hope this is the song,
you have longed,
forâ€¦

So, I hear you're leaving,
well you'll leave me grieving.
So let's not waste,
a second of our next meeting.

You've got to smile, when I smile
Because everyday the smiles resound, especially when you're around,
and when I pray that the bell doesn't make a sound.

I hope this the song you will cherish,
with this prolonged, song's, chorus.

I couldn't possibly apologize,
For all the "I'll miss yous."
Because I'll miss you,
And for the moments we have,
we'll never have memories of bad.
This is the song,
that belongs,
to, you.
