And I say to you my friend,
"Walk hard, Walk far."
And you step up,
to the touch,
that wonderful touch,
you love so much.
And then you,
you fall, you fall down.
So I say, I say "What now?"

And you tell me to keep pushing the envelope,
And I keep telling you to keep pushing everything.
And you said, to step off,
You said, I'm not your boss.
Well I'm, stepping off,
But remember, I'm here.

I'm here for you, I'm here for you.
I remember the time I wasn't,
And maybe that's why you're so upset,
that next time I won't be there, is a time you won't forget.
Never forget, never forget me,
Never forget, never forget me.
Cause I'll never, cause I'll never,
Forget, forget,
You.
