There's snow outside,
the sky is grey,
it describes my life,
day by day.
There's only one reason,
for my cloudy season,
and it's you.

There's something about you,
that eases my heart,
And I know I can make you smile,
when we're not apart.
There's only one person,
That can make the pain not worsen,
And it's you.

Stop the storm, stop the pain,
stop the world, end this game,
I'm done playing,
I'm done waiting,

Sorry for the troubleâ€¦!
