Are you real or are you a dream
Are you true, or not what you seem
Cause I've been here before
Don't wanna hurt myself no more oh no

Someone who feels for me
Who's constantly inlove with me
And cares for me
Someone who won't say goodbye
Someone who can change my life
I hope its you, I hope its you

Will you stay, or will you leave
Shall I doubt, or shall I believe
Cause I've been here before
Don't wanna hurt myself no more oh no no

Someone who feels for me
Who's constantly inlove with me
And cares for me
Someone who won't say goodbye
Someone who can change my life
I hope its you, I hope its you

How will I know
If you're gonna be here tomorrow
Tell me baby what can I do
When there's no other way
But to give you my heart, my love
And trust you from the start
Baby don't break my heart

Someone who feels for me
Who's constantly inlove with me
And cares for me
Someone who won't say goodbye
Someone who can change my life

Someone who feels for me
Who's constantly inlove with me
And cares for me

Someone who won't say goodbye
Someone who can change my life
I hope its you, I hope its you
