you'll no longer be kissed
in kind, as you long for intuition, as you have to learn the lesson twice
say the password twice

been all messed up,
have you ever?
been all messed up,
have you ever?

You're the pincard, you're the lifeguard, you're the information guy, but things look much bigger on the knees, on your knees.
Miss the signal, miss the signpost, lose the access to it all. and all of a sudden you are one with the freaks.

been all messed up,
have you ever?
been all messed up,
have you ever?
