Shrink
It shifts you,
grips you
Takes all your friends away
from you Say: face me
embrace me Take all these friends away
from me

Are you here?
Two hours and
two more
And you're near

I get smaller cause I drive Until i'm tiny
when I'm back
at home
So tiny I can't even climb a chair. I can't call
you. I can't write.
I can't reach the phone, can't reach the light.
That's why I
never, never wanna go from here.
