The same history it drove
Me crazy every way I tried
To focus on my life
Or on you

That's exactly what it takes
Marble statues dancing there insane:
Jumping, hitting me
Straight through my eye

It's penetrating so... Just open up this book!

The history won't break
Soft pages it stays
You can turn those every day any time you like

You've seen it there it stays
Why sacrifice yourself?
We can write it every day, every day

My files might be in dirt and dust
Lust, love and life I've known
A white pen's waiting for you to put it on

Let's reach for so much more
Rewrite your first and second love
Like your own world wars and Resurrections

It's penetrating so... Just open up this book!

The history won't break
Soft pages it stays
You can turn those every day any time you like

You've seen it there it stays
Why sacrifice yourself?
We can write it every day, every day
