Baby I've been thinkin'
Thinkin' bout the time we had
When the hearts were really strong
And easy smiles grew longer
Well, now the time is coming
Let's cross this bridge of pain
And try to heal our broken hearts
Get a brand new start and remember

All this time I've k
I wish that I'd shown ya then
When you taught me how to love
And I now know where my heart is Well, sometimes I just panic
You scared me with your love
It was the chance that I should take
I wanted to so badly

Touch my heart
And you will know that I am yours
Feel my passion
It's yours and yours alone
Kiss my tears
And know that I belong to you
And throw away your doubts of me
Let me put your mind at ease
Love will come when it do
Hold on fast don't let it slip from you

I thought about just beggin'
But beggin' seems so weak
And yet it always worked for me
At least when you were crying
Well, I see now that I blew it
I guess I always knew it then
Well, I feel it clearly now
Guess who's crying now

Touch my heart
And you will know that I am yours
Feel my passion
It's yours and yours alone

Kiss my tears
And know that I belong to you
And throw away your doubts of me
Let me put your mind at ease
Love will come when it do
Hold on fast don't let it slip from you

All the nights I stayed awake
The dreams I missed
The time I wasted calling out to you
Falling after you, I remember
