"Bitter Ashes"

Standing here in the dust of dreams
Can't recall my name
Whispered voices calling

Standing here on the darkened street
Can't remember years
Swirled like bitter ashes

Standing here on the dust strewn streets
All my memories are just bitter ashes

Day and night searching empty dreams
In the end we find only bitter ashes

Standing here stripped of everything
I have lost my faith it's all bitter ashes

Standing here as the waters rise
All my memories swirling down the gutter

Standing here on the dust strewn streets
All my memories are just bitter ashes

Day and night searching empty dreams
In the end we find only bitter ashes

Where are we going now
What will become of us
What does the future hold
Having forsaken us
Where are we going now
What will become of us
What does the future hold
Having forsaken us

Standing here in the fucare
Can you hear my voice I'm just shadows falling
