Dove in the dark it flew so well i meet a boy who came from hell he stole my heart away from me and now he wants to seet it free i came home crying to my bed not a word to mum i said. dad camehome late that night
looking for me left to right. he found me hanging from a rope and a note fell to the ground it said.
( Dig a grave big and deep to cover me from head to feet and place a dove ontop to show the world i dies from love )
