The Year, 20XX When we last left Mega Ran, he was forced to make a very difficult decision Didn't know who to trust Sometimes the uncertainty of life can lead one in a strange direction And now, Mega Ran and K-Murdock and present... Forever Famicom Is it a bird, is it a plane, is he insane, probably, all the above all of the scrubs and gamers right beside he, What do ya know? what did he do? Come back to the lane where he gained his most fame, by rapping bout them games He was ready to quit, the first was a one shot deal But the big wigs got word of the style and the skill Now everywhere he goes people ask him the same exact Question "When you gonna do some more gamer rap?" Now what we gonna do right here is go back, or forward, I'm not even sure, I'm losing track somewhere between tomorrow and yesterday a new chapter begins, so wipe the rest away! When we last left mega ran- he was in a quandary brother tried to talk to him he said don't even bother me He was caught between a hard place and a rock and was starting to lose faith in the doc Doubted his purpose lost faith in a lot Walked off and never solved the case so it's locked Still had mega dreams of escapin the block But he had to prove no one was Takin his spot Then he met a man, his name was k murdock Played him a couple tracks and they were hot With the vibe that strong Inspired him to put the blue helmet back on make some new rap songs But whadya know it wasn't a foe that he was used to chasing down They attacked the industry for promoting and marketing Music that was tepid and bland Had to rep for the fans, got off stage and stepped in the stands So I won't be back to robot city for a minute cuz I got a new fight, and every intention to win it Dig it? Splendid, now pick up the paddle We got a war to win, so get equipped for the battle yeah.. Now what we gonna do right here is go back or forward, I'm not even sure, I'm losing track somewhere between tomorrow and yesterday a new chapter begins, so wipe the rest away!
