I can see your emotion, tossing you around in the waves on your ocean.
You want to run and hide every time I go by. How do you think that makes me feel?
I know you cry. I know you try. I know you need more than you've got to get by.
Hey. Yeah you. I'm Talkin' To You.

So we took things a little out of sequence,
we started out with the sex thing.
I'm a boy. You're a girl. What else were we supposed to do?
You wanna lay around and watch the world on T.V.
You can't solve your problems by remote control.
You'll get by. You've got to try.
It's gonna take everything to make it cake.
Hey. Yeah you. I'm Talkin' To You. Yeah you.

You were fine, but you became unkind.
Everyone I know has been hurt a little.
You went too far with the, "nobody loves me" line,
you've got to get yourself back on that horse and ride.
You seem to think everyone is out to make a stink.
You're on the edge lookin' over on the brink.
You know your head. You're no good dead.
All you need is some T.L.C. from somebody.
Hey. Yeah you. I'm Talkin' To You. Yeah you...
